Welcome

At Number 31, you're staying right on Dublin's Georgian Mile. An oasis of peace and quiet, this welcoming townhouse of two distinctive buildings joined by a secret garden is one of Dublin's hidden gems. A classical, beautifully restored Georgian town house on one side.

A stunning modernist mews, once home to famed architect Sam Stephenson, on the other.

Relax with warm service and staff who will happily share all the best things to do, see and enjoy.

This easy guide will help you make the most of your stay. If you've any special requests, please don't hesitate to ask us.

We hope you enjoy your stay with us.

DINING

Our neighbourhood is full of delicious restaurants, buzzy bars and cafes to visit. We'd be happy to make recommendations or book a table for you.

Here are a few of our favourites, all just a short walk away.

- Suesey Street - Lovely outdoor seating area, great food, right on our doorstep.
- Matt the Thresher - It was good enough for Michelle Obama! Fantastic seafood, a 5-minute walk
- FXB's - If you like a top notch steak, this is the place, just around the corner.
- Restaurant Patrick Guilbaud - 2-star Michelin restaurant, need we say more!
- Dax - A firm favourite for excellent food, fantastic service, and great atmosphere!

HONESTY BAR

Help yourself to a drink from our honesty bar in the Lounge. Just write down what you've taken and we'll add the charge to your room.
